Pamplin Man Kills 12 Point Buck

Four happy hunters display buck and doe, the result of good hunting in Appomattox County and adjoining counties as the deer season got underway last week. The hunters included Eddie Covington, Gene Richardson, Sam Baldwin, Bradley Baldwin, and Lacey Baldwin, with his 12 point buck. One observer remarked that he had seen larger deer, but never before a rack to compare with the 12 point buck bagged by Baldwin.

Official Defeat Of Amendent

Official returns compiled Monday by the State Bord of Elections shows that the "Frecholer amendment", was defeated by some 24,200 votes in Virginia's November 6 elections.

The state board's canvass also confirmed other results already indicated by unofficial counts.

Amendment Results

The freeholder amendment, which sought to provide that only owners o land may vote in bond referendums, lost by 174,301 to 150,322.

Two other proposed constitutional amendments were easily ratified. The vote to eliminate the blank paper registration requirement was 291,289 to 91,586.

The other amendment, to enable two - fifth of the General Assembly members to pass temporary legislation in emergencies caused by nuclear warfare carried by 317,027 to 6,889.

In four districts the unopposed Democratic incumbents were re-elected with only a few write -in votes cast against them. Official figures in the 4th district was Rep. Watkins M. Abbitt, 30,642, and write-ins 15.
